HC warns Delhi govt of strict action if there's no scheme to regulate cabs by Nov-end

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 22

THE DELHI HIGH Court has warned the Aam Aadmi Party government of strict action if it does not finalise its policy to regulate taxi running in the national capital by the end of November this year.

The warning by the high court came after the Delhi government said its policy — the City Taxi Scheme 2017 — was under consideration and would take more time to finalise.

The Delhi government had in September last year sought four weeks' time to place the regulations before the court, and on July 31, this year, it sought two months more to carry out the exercise.

Dissatisfied by the government's stand, a division bench of the high court in its order of July 31 directed that the New City Taxi Policy and the Licensing and Regulation of App-based Aggregators Rules, 2017, be placed before the court by November 26, the next date of hearing. "If action not taken by then we will be constrained to take strict action," the court said.

It was hearing a PIL initiated by it on September 14 last year after taking cognisance of a September 12, 2017, incident in which a driver of a black-yellow taxi allegedly offered a lift to a woman and then sexually assaulted her.

The court had taken note of a report in an English daily in this regard.

Referring to the incident, the court had said, "It points out that enforcement agencies, Delhi Police and traffic police are unable to check gross violation of law by taxi drivers in Delhi, resulting in serious crimes including sexual violence against passengers." The news report had said the 30-year-old taxi driver was arrested for allegedly raping the 23-year-old woman at a park near Red Fort on September 12, 2017.
